- CRAFT / PROFESSION

Julie Rousselet sews ready-to-wear clothing and accessories for children (from 3 months to 10 years old).

- BACKGROUND

Graduated in Human Resources, Julie transitioned careers in 2023 after starting sewing classes in 2021. From there, her desire to create was born, and the satisfaction of making items with her own hands has stayed with her ever since.

- INSPIRATION AND DESIGNS

Julie is a passionate mother who draws her inspiration from her daughters, through whom she discovered Liberty fabric. Liberty is a fine, lightweight cotton fabric, renowned for its delicately colored floral patterns. It is distinguished by its silky, soft texture, providing a pleasant feel against the skin. This high-quality fabric is often compared to silk because of its lightness and softness.

Julie is a dedicated perfectionist who is committed to regularly offering new creations.

Loolie offers accessories (hair clips, headbands, elastics, bands), newborn necklaces, bow ties, bibs, wipes, pouches, and ready-to-wear clothing for children and women.
