- CRAFT/PROFESSION

Khwangai PINKAEW is an expert weaver and crafts designs reflecting her cultural heritage. She makes hanging mobiles adorned with pandanus and seashells, necklaces fashioned from seeds and little shells and sand paintings decorated with Kanak symbols, kagus, sea turtles and warriors.

Her key speciality is weaving with natural fibres to create magnificent crowns, hanging mobiles, braids and ornaments.

Through the woven designs she crafts, Khwangai shares her passion and dedication and conjures up a world of rich cultural traditions.

- BACKGROUND

Khwangai is self-taught and ready to take on any new challenge, trying out ideas and techniques to develop and perfect her skills. With boundless enthusiasm, she throws her creative talent into creating masterpieces of woven art.

- INSPIRATION AND ART/DESIGNS

Khwangai's art reflects multicultural influences; she draws inspiration from New Caledonia's natural beauties, the sea and our superb lagoon and her hanging mobiles are adorned with fish, birds and flowers.

Subtle details evoking New Caledonia's profusion of natural wonders.
